The European Schools: where are we, where are we going, what do we want?

New opportunity of European School Brussels-Argenteuil (EEBA) in Waterloo

We invite you to join us for a conference on the European Schools, focusing on their current status and future developments, including the new opportunity presented by the European School Brussels-Argenteuil (EEBA) in Waterloo.

During the conference, Mrs. Catherine Roba-Rabier will discuss the origins, history, journey, and evolution of the European Schools, highlighting the new opportunity for our children to attend the European School of Argenteuil in Waterloo.

Our second speaker, Mr. Félix de Mérode, the director of the school, will present the school and the opportunities it offers.

The FFPE would like to extend its congratulations to our administration, particularly Mr. Christian Roques Deputy Director General for DG HR, for addressing the concerns expressed by families in our July leaflet titled "The European Schools (The European Schools - where do we stand....pdf)". Thanks to the Deputy Director General prompt actions, an agreement was reached with EEBA, aiming to alleviate overcrowding in the four traditional schools in Brussels and to enhance the educational offerings for staff residing in the southern part of the city.
